879 and counting

That is the number of sacks of rubbish we have collected on our Community Litter Picks since we started in August 2016. The events have been roughly every two months, but there have also been assorted bespoke 'picks' with schools and cub scout groups, so 34 events in all. Not bad!

If you would like to join in and help that would be fantastic, please contact your local councillor.

OFFICE/TOILETS CONVERSION PROJECT AND BINGLEY POOL

The lease for the toilet block in Jubilee Gardens, as recently amended by Bradford Council, has now been signed and returned to Bradford. The Council has received borrowing approval for £163,500 from the Secretary of State, and can now apply for a loan for the conversion project from the Public Works Loan Board.

A tender for the conversion works was issued on 9 July and the deadline for the receipt of sealed bids from contractors is 12

August. A recommendation from the Council's Project Manager, Bowman Riley, as to the successful contractor will be considered by full Council.

The Changing Places project group continues to pursue the installation of a CP facility at Bingley Pool. It was agreed at the July full Council meeting to fund an electrical appraisal of the Pool in connection with this and to investigate funding for a modular CP facility as a back-up solution.

At the same meeting, a representative from Friends of Bingley Pool (FOBP) raised concerns about the progress of the transfer of the pool to the group from Bradford Council. The Town Council agreed to write to Bradford Council asking that the Community Asset Transfer (CAT) be prioritised and that the pool remain open for a further year at Bradford Council's expense to enable the transition from Bradford to FOBP to take place. The Council is also requesting a meeting about the CAT with the Chief Executive.

We hope you're enjoying the summer holiday season and there's still time to catch the last of the Play in the Park events. 23 August, free of charge – Friday 23 August, Myrtle Park 12 to 4pm

SHOW OPENER IS WELL-ROUNDED CHARACTER

The Society is honoured to have Haworth author and horticulturalist Maurice Baren to open our 102nd Annual Show in the Memorial Hall at 3.00pm on 31st August. He is a lay preacher and a past president of Keighley Rotary Club who has received a top honour. He has been presented with the Northern Horticultural Society's coveted Harlow Carr Medal. The prize is in recognition of outstanding contributions to horticulture, and service to the society, by northern gardeners.

Mr Baren retired in 1988 after a number of years as a horticulturalist with Bradford Council. Since then he has worked for Edexcel, formerly BTEC, checking standards in Colleges of Agriculture and Horticulture across the country. Until last year he was a governor of Askham Bryan College, where he had trained following National Service in the RAF.

He is a former chairman of Yorkshire in Bloom, and has written six books on various subjects including the church and has raised many thousands of pounds for different causes with activities including head and beard shaves. His books for children include: How it All Began in the Garden: Stories Behind Common or Garden Names; How Household Names Began (How It All Began); How it All Began Up the High Street; Victorian Shopping: How it all Began.

Traffic Calming in Otley Road

The speed of traffic going through Eldwick is still a great cause for concern. Speed bumps have been mentioned for which there is some support, but anybody who has to go through Gilstead on a regular basis may have other ideas.

One of the best traffic calming schemes is the Boston Spa model. For those of you who have never driven through Boston Spa the idea is quite simple, parking is allowed throughout on both sides of the road thus creating a chicane, vehicles giving away to oncoming traffic. There are very few holdups and the drivers tend to be very fair and courteous. There is of course no cost to this model as it is not necessary to have a mass of yellow lines.

An example of the Boston Spa model is the parking bay opposite the Post Office. The less "enlightened" driver will see this as a nuisance and there are of course those more self centered drivers who see this space as an opportunity to block the pavement.

If this space is used correctly it will automatically create traffic calming.

PLANTERS

As you will see the planters in the village have now become very well established, especially the tub outside the Post Office. These planters are a collaboration between the Town Council and the Eldwick Village Society who both share the cost.

The one planter that is not part of this scheme is the "Eldwick" one above Spring Lane. This planter is maintained by local residents and is a credit to them.

All Aboard for the Pirates of Penzance! Touring Production comes to Bingley, Saturday September 28th

"Energising and enthusing to watch ... punchy, toe-tapping and thrilling to hear!" is how local press have described recent productions by the renowned Gilbert and Sullivan company, the West Yorkshire Savoyards. This September 28th at 7.30pm they return to the Bingley Arts Centre with one of the most popular G&S operas, The Pirates of Penzance. Fast, funny and packed with satirical wit and musical excellence, the Pirates are setting sail this autumn in a new touring production which looks set to be a splash hit from the West Yorkshire Savoyards.

The Yorkshire based touring company which specialises in rousing productions of the Gilbert and Sullivan operas has received the backing of TV presenter Alan Titchmarsh. The well-known broadcaster, novelist, journalist and gardener and former President of the West Yorkshire Savoyards said, "The works of Gilbert and Sullivan continue to inspire and amuse generation after generation of music-lovers and theatre-goers, and the West Yorkshire Savoyards continue to enthral their audiences. With Sullivan's tuneful melodies and Gilbert's rapier-sharp wit (Stephen Sondheim considers him the best of all lyricists), coupled with the W.Y.S. high standards, any audience can be assured of a great night out!"

Once again, the Director of the Savoyards production is ex D'Oyly Carte actor, Alistair Donkin, and his touring production of The Pirates of Penzance promises to come alive in a dramatically staged masterpiece of music and comic timing. The production includes full sets, costumes and orchestra conducted by musical director Oliver Longstaff.

Gilbert and Sullivan's blockbuster is among the most crowd-pleasing comic musicals in history, loved for its dynamite songs, gleefully entertaining story and saucy satire. Filled with Sullivan's memorable melodies, The Pirates of Penzance is pure joy and sensational entertainment for everyone, young or old.

A talented cast is led by popular local director, comic actor and leading 'patter-man', Graham Weston who plays the Major General ('I am the very model of a modern major-general'). John Colston plays the Pirate King and playing the female lead of Mabel is the experienced principal soprano, Helen Fieldsend from Sale in Lancashire. The West Yorkshire Savoyards is drawn together from experienced singers and actors from companies throughout the north of England and is noted for its high standard of production.

Tickets for The Pirates of Penzance, at Bingley Arts Centre on Saturday 28 September at 7.30pm are £15 with £14 concessions, available from the Box Office telephone 01274 567983.
